Heraldic Devices of Tol Erethrin (1st)	1916-1917?	PE13/94	in the Lost Tales notebooks. The first device is labelled Taurobel, which Christopher Tolkien identifies as Great Haywood in Staffordshire, where Tolkien and Edith lived for a while in 1916 to 1917.
Heraldic Devices of Tol Erethrin (2nd)	1913-1916?	PE13/95	in the Lost Tales notebooks. The second device is labelled Cortirion, i.e. Kortirion, which Tolkien identifies with Warwick, where Edith lived from 1913 until their marriage in March 1916, and where Tolkien visited her from Oxford.
Heraldic Devices of Tol Erethrin (3rd)	1913?	PE13/96	in the Lost Tales notebooks. The linked rings suggest this refers to Tolkien's reunion with Edith Bratt on January 8, 1913.
Goldogrin Pronominal Prefixes		PE13/97	It appears on a narrow strip of paper remaining in the notebook "Lost Tales E" (Bodleian Library, Oxford, Tolkien MS S1/VI (Lost Tales E), folio 54v.) after a page had been tom out. The full page appears to have contained material on the Goldogrin verb, for the remaining strip bears a list of pronominal prefixes like those employed with verbs cited in the Gnomish Lexicon.

Comparative in Eldarin, with various etymological notes	1959-12/1962	PE17/90	after: Comparative in Eldarin
Words published (1)	1959-12/1960-05		WP1. This list seems to be earlier than "Words, Phrases and Passages".

Text	Date	Source	Comment
Words published (2)	1959-12/1960-05		WP2. A list of Quenya words without names, which extends "as far as end of Vol. II," according to Tolkien's annotation at the end of the list. This list seems to be earlier than "Words, Phrases and Passages".
Words, Phrases and Passages in various tongues	1959-12/1960-05		WPP. after: Words published
Collection of Etymological Notes: Beautiful	1959-12/1960	PE17/150	A group of etymologies under the heading "Beautiful" on a pair of sheets that Tolkien pinned together, and placed with a group of loose sheets probably connected with the essay Quendi and Eldar. with Words Published (1) before Words, Phrases and Passages in various tongues
Collection of Etymological Notes: Stems for 'flower' and 'snow'	1959-12/1960	PE17/160 PE17/153 PE17/146	These etymological notes are on two sheets pinned together by Tolkien, which contain notes on roots whose derivatives have to do with flowers, colors and growth. The sheets were placed between the "Beautiful" group of etymologies and the "Definitive Linguistic notes". after Collection of Etymological Notes: Beautiful
Collection of Etymological Notes: Dwarf	1959	PE17/45	This note is on the back of a list of prefixes meaning 'back' and was placed immediately following the list of roots dated "Dec. 59".

Collection of Etymological Notes: (Neck)	1959-12/1962	PE17/146	This note is on the back of the earlier of two notes on the Comparative in Eldarin, a draft of the etymological explanation of Achad Tarlang.
Collection of Etymological Notes: Stems	1959-12	PE17/158	A list of several etymologies written in ball-point with the heading "Stems" on a sheet which Tolkien dated "Dec. 59" using the back of a printed memo for a college meeting on "Tuesday 21 June" of 1955. The list includes √RIG- 'twine'; √WIRI 'weave'; √WAYA 'blow'; √LĀ-; √PHŌ/Ū; √PĀTH/PAS- 'smooth'; and √ǺĀN, YĀN 'extend'. The front of the memo also has four etymologies in the blank areas, one (√SRĀ, SRAGA 'awkward') in ball-point and three (√THAR- 'vigour', √PHEN- 'door' and √PAR- 'peel') written with a nib-pen, the latter presumably on a different occasion, but probably not long before or after the rest of the list.
Selection of recent notes on Quenyar especially those making or suggesting new elements of vocabulary	1966	PE17/17
L. R. Etym. notes (1)	1959/1965-06	PE17/65 PE17/168-169 PE17/181
L. R. Etym. notes (2)	1965-06	PE17/65	after L. R. Etym. notes (1)
Silvan Folk, waybread and Galadriel	1967/1968	PE17/60	A typed sheet which was placed immediately following the discussion of √PHAN 'cover, screen, veil'.

RGEO (draft)		PE17/76	This is apparently a preliminary draft of the explanation of the metre of Namárie that was included in "Notes and Translations", published in The Road Goes Ever On, A Song Cycle , 1967, pp. 60-1. The statement that there is an anapæst in line 3 shows that this draft post-dates the decision to change the word vánier to avánier in that line, one of the revisions of the poem to appear in the 2nd edition of The Lord of the Rings .

Quenya Notes	1957-09/1957-10	PE17/145	A collection of papers, placed immediately following the Draft list of "Words, Phrases and Passages," the first sheet dated "Sep., Oct. 1957." Two of the other pages bear the date "Sep. 1957," while the notes on a half-sheet included with them are on the back of a letter dated 16 July 1957. Most of this collection is etymological notes listed by root, but there are also six pages of "Phonological notes" on the development of consonant clusters in Quenya and Sindarin. The first group of longer etymologies includes √MAY 'make'; √AYA-N 'treat with awe'; √MAG; √MAN 'good'; √AS- 'warmth'; √AR 'beyond'; ADA; and √ANA/NA 'to(wards)'. A sheet with short etymologies has √STOL 'helmet'; √LOK- 'bend'; √PHAW- 'emit' ; √LAY-; √KEWE-; √SLOY-; √NEK 'deprive'; √TAN- 'indicate'; √TEN- 'direction'; √KOL- 'bear'; √NEN 'water'; √MOT- 'fen'; √LĪNĪ 'pool'; SEREK- 'blood'; and (U)RUI> 'anger'. Other etymologies in the bundle are √SAT SATAR 'faithful' ; √SRIT 'to complete a work or design'; √DEL; WAL- 'emotion' ; IN-I-D 'mind'; and a short list called "Lang. notes" with √GWAL- 'be stirred'; √WIS- 'alter'; and √RON- 'solid'.
Changes affecting 'Silmarillion' nomenclature	1959	PE17/43	A group of pages clipped together by Tolkien.

Letter to W. R. Matthews	13-06-1964/ 15-06-1964	PE17/12, 136	This is from the carbon copy of a letter to Mr. W. R. Matthews (dated 13-15 June 1964), which Tolkien placed in the same file with the manuscript of "Words, Phrases and Passages."
For including in Quenya	1964-07-16	PE17/77 PE17/114 PE17/156	These sheets are gathered with NGS. The first is dated July 16, 1964, and labelled "For including in Quenya."
Draft letter to David Masson	1955	PE17/40	Masson. An 8-page draft of a letter to Mr. David Masson, a librarian at the University of Leeds, with whom Tolkien corresponded in 1955 and later in 1968. The letter clearly dates from 1955, since Tolkien cites from the 1st edition text of Galadriel's Song.

Linguistic Notes on BBC script: Quenya Fractions	1968-11/1970	VT47/18	Found in association with The Shibboleth of Fëanor and The Problem of Ros are several pages of linguistic notes, written primarily on pages from a script of the BBC radio adaptation of The Hobbit (aired in Sept.-Nov. 1968), and so from the same general time period as HFN .
Inscriptions: NEA
Inscriptions: NLL	1969-09-13		The sheet immediately following NEA 2a bears another Quenya well-wishing from 1969, which Tolkien describes at the top of the sheet as an "Inscription (on stick-in label) with signature, sent to Dr. & Mrs. Johnson, Dept. of Psychology, Univ. of B'ham. Sept. 13, 1969".

This page intends to guide new hobbyist in their effort to familiarize themselves with materials available.

Complete Beginner

At this point a student needs to get a grasp of basic concepts, best introduced in specifically designed courses. These include:

- Eldamo Introductory Quenya by Paul Strack. The most recent course.
- Atanquesta by Tamas Ferencz.
- Quenya Course by Helge K. Fauskanger, an old classic.
- Gelio Edhellen! by Fiona Jallings.

Beginner

Now a student can read on more technical discussions and get acquainted with sources.

- Quenya Grammar articles by Paul Strack covering specific topics.
- Sindarin Grammar articles by Paul Strack covering specific topics.

Or enjoy more 'narrative' layer of compositions.

- Quendi and Eldar
- Ósanwe-kenta
- Rivers and Beacon-hills
- The Shibboleth of Fëanor
- The Problem of Ros

Intermediate

The previous readings should equip a student to start working through easier bunch of original materials that are less technical and do not suffer from contradictory revisions.

- Tengwesta Quenderinwa 2: PE18/71-107.
- Outline of Phonology: PE19/68-107.
- Common Eldarin Noun Structure: PE21/70-86.
- Common Eldarin Verb Structure: PE22/128-140.
- Eldarin Hands, Fingers and Numerals: VT47, 48, 49.

High Intermediate

After finishing some of the less dense materials, a student is ready to dabble with older compositions that are still often relevant in the discussions or newer unfinished drafts.

- Quenya Verbal System: PE22/99-127.
- The Feanorian Alphabet: PE22/15-53, PE23/12-57.
- Late Notes on Verb Structure: PE22/141-168.

Advanced

To this list belong rather obscure documents, convoluted either in their technical language or amount of revisions. These documents require from a student critical judgement on how earlier and later versions of the languages can be connected and contradictory.

- Declension of Nouns: PE21/1-41.
- Words, Phrases & Passages in the Lord of the Rings: PE17.
